

NORTH NORFOLK MUSIC FESTIVAL

12 – 14 DECEMBER 2025

MIDWINTERFEST AT WELLS MALTINGS

REGISTERED CHARITY NO. 1128730

Friday 12 December at 4.30pm

Tickets £20

TIM HORTON piano

Sonatas by Haydn and Beethoven, Scherzos and Nocturne by Chopin and Ravel's Valses Nobles et Sentimentales. Who better to open the first NNMF in its new venue than pianist Tim Horton. His delightful programme will be given on the very same Steinway concert grand that we have enjoyed for the last 20 years in South Creake.

Friday 12 December at 7pm

Tickets £20

MATTHEW McKINNEY tenor

ROELOF TEMMINGH piano

Schubert Die Schöne Müllerin, D795

Outstanding Scottish tenor Matthew McKinney, winner of the 2024 Kathleen Ferrier Awards makes his NNMF début with Schubert's great song cycle, the tragic tale of unrequited love.

Saturday 13 December at 2.30pm

Tickets £20

KARELIA QUARTET

Quartets by Caroline Shaw, Haydn and Beethoven (Razumovsky No.1). This astonishing young quartet formed at the Royal Academy of Music from players from Australia, Norway and Finland is already playing at Wigmore Hall, winning prizes and generally turning heads.

01328 730357

01328 710885

northnorfolkmusicfestival.com

wellsmaltings.org.uk

Saturday 13 December at 4.30pm

Tickets £10

BARRY CHEESEMAN

A talk with musical illustrations by Joint-NNMF Director, Barry Cheeseman, on Giordano's opera Andrea Chénier. Barry has lived his life for and through opera!

Saturday 13 Dec 6pm

TICKETS from Wells Maltings

ANDREA CHÉNIER

Live broadcast from the Metropolitan Opera, New York City. The verismo opera by Umberto Giordano, set to an Italian libretto by Luigi Illica, a story based loosely on the life of the French poet André Chénier, who was executed during the French Revolution.

Sunday 14 December at 11am

Tickets £20

JOE MACDONALD violin

SIMON ROWLAND-JONES viola

CARYS UNDERWOOD cello

ARCHIE BONHAM piano

A celebration of the chamber music of Gabriel Fauré
Violin Sonata No.1, Piano Trio, Piano Quartet No.2
These four players from different generations got together at the Royal College of Music to present a programme of Gabriel Fauré's miraculous chamber music, 101 years after his death.

Sunday 14 December at 2pm

Tickets £10

PETROC TRELAWNY

Petroc Trelawny, the voice of BBC Radio 3, in conversation with Barry Cheeseman about his journey from Cornwall to Broadcasting House, following the publication of "Trelawny's Cornwall: A Journey through Western Lands" in August 2024.

Sunday 14 December at 3.30pm

Tickets £20

ALEXANDRIA MOON soprano

SAM HIRD baritone

SIMON LEPPER piano

Two outstanding young singers from the Opera School at the Royal College of Music join Simon Lepper in songs and duets by Brahms, Schumann and Britten, and will bring our Christmas concert to a hilarious conclusion with Madeleine Dring's "I've Found the Proms", a wry look at music and music lovers!

SUNDAY 14th December at 5.30pm
NNMF Friends' Christmas Party

BOOK YOUR TICKETS ONLINE OR BY TELEPHONE
01328 730357      northnorfolkmusicfestival.com